

Parish Registration Form

(This form should be used if you have not previously completed a Parish Census Form)

Welcome to the our Partnership of Parishes.

Our parishes have one parish priest and work together as much as possible. We have one single parishioner register. The register helps the Parish Priest in his ministry by aiding communication with parishioners. For more information about the parishes, please visit the website www.partnershipparishes.org

The information you provide will be confidential and only used by the parish priest and the parish office for pastoral purposes. We don't make personal information available to anyone else.
