PARISH BULLETIN

PENTECOST SUNDAY

SUNDAY 24TH MAY 2026

A WORD FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

Come Holy Spirit! Come as in a New Pentecost! These were the words of Pope St John XXIII, in 1962 at the opening of the Second Vatican Council and are words which still have force today. We need to pray for a new Pentecost.

Last Sunday was a wonderful demonstration of what the Holy Spirit can do to bring people together in one Faith from all over the world in our own parish. Our Mass of the Nations was a great success, and is a great example of the enthusiasm which coming together in celebration of our shared Faith can be. You can see more about the Mass on page 4 of the bulletin. I really hope and pray that this can be a foundation for doing more to engage more of the people who come to Mass in the mission of the parish more generally.

The mission of the parish, to bring the Good News to the people who live around us, depends primarily on the presence and action of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit comes most assuredly in response to our prayer. And so I would really like to encourage you to participate in the weekly rhythm of prayer in our parish. During Lent we always do quite well in coming to Mass and devotions. However it seems that this really reduces so much in Easter-tide. I would particularly ask you to try to make a time each week to come to Mass and/or Adoration on a weekday each week. I often think that it would be much more evident to the children of our parish schools how important the Eucharist is if they saw more parishioners coming to the school Masses, all of which are open to parishioners.

You will see that we will be preparing for Corpus Christi with a triduum of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Please sign up to come to church to ensure that our Lord is accompanied in prayer during that time.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St David I of Scotland 1084-1153

David was the youngest son of St Margaret, queen of Scotland, and King Malcolm III. He succeeded to the crown after the death of his brother. He was a friend of St Aelred, the Abbot of Rievaulx, who bore witness to the king's devotion and generosity to the poor, just like his mother. He founded a number of dioceses and religious houses. He promoted the independence of the Scottish church from England, but was remorseful for an ill-conceived invasion of England and suffered because of the premature death of his son. As well as receiving the last sacraments, he spent the time before his death reciting the psalms.

MASS OF THE NATIONS

On Sunday 17th May we celebrated the Mass of the Nations at St Joseph's. It was great to see the church so full. The children from St Joseph's and St John's schools had prepared flags and pictures of saints from the various countries represented in the parish. Adults of different language groups led the prayer of the faithful, and we had hymns from Africa and India at the offertory and Communion. Everyone was invited to introduce themselves to someone they didn't already know. And so many people stayed behind for the finger food which had been brought by so many people to share a taste of their culture. A great event surely to be repeated again! It certainly gave a taste of the work the Holy Spirit is doing in our parish bringing together people from around the world.
